Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

READINGS

2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

Once day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to here husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.

Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son,, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

Responsorial: Psalm 89:2a

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord

Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones is a disciple – amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

A SEASON of GENEROSITY

Made in the image of God, baptized into the Body of Christ, we are called upon to die to ourselves so that God's generous love might be shared.

LIVING and PRAYING with the WORD

Creator God, sometimes we forget how buoyant your salvation is. Grace us today with time to savor all that you have given us. Sometimes we walk on by something that is so beautiful. Thank you for the stars. Thank you for babies' toenails. Thank you for the smile on my friend's face. Thank you, most of all, for being our lavish God.

CONSIDER & DISCUSS

- God's bounty is all around us. What can we do today to be more generous?
- When was the last time that you looked at the grasshoppers? The clouds? Take a moment and do something "unimportant" with someone you love.

Pray for the Sick

Pray for those who are suffering from depression. Pray for those who are in nursing homes, care homes, hospitals...who have no family for visits. We pray for those who sacrifice much to provide care to the sick.

Giving from the Heart

For over 30 years, Deacon Stephen Maglente and his wife Momi Maglente have provided our families here at St. Anthony's instruction and direction for infant baptism. We are so blessed for their full service preparation. They walked them through the process, they encouraged them to continue growing in their faith as they are the first sharers of the faith with their child(ren)...and to complete the circle deacon Stephen has also baptized hundreds of children. Stephen has not only prepared couples for baptism. He and Momi have decided to pass on the baton of preparing families for Baptism. Deacon Stephen is still available to baptize the children but will lessen some of the load that he may enjoy his family and their growing needs.

We would like to also extend our Congratulations to his granddaughters who have served alongside him at regular and special Masses (Christmas, Easter Vigil, Chrism Mass, Stations of the Cross). Kylie and Skye Murakami are 2020 graduates from Kamehameha School – Maui Campus! Thank you for your years of service and we pray that as your journey takes you to new heights, you know that St. Anthony's parish is praying for you. Best Wishes! Our apologies to the 2020 Kamehameha School graduates, we inadvertently missed your school in our shout out to the graduates of Maui!

A Big Shout out to the University of Hawaii Maui Campus graduates, especially Miss Jrae Viela! So proud of your achievements and many more great things coming your way...Congratulations!
